"Those who remain in me, and I in them, will bear much fruit; for you can do nothing without me."
John 15:5

The Gospel we listen to today is familiar to us all. Jesus is the vine and we are the branches. There is an intimate connection between us, a bond that sustains us, a closeness that is life-giving. This can be summed up in Jesus beautiful words,

"Remain in me, as I remain in you"

And these words get to the heart of the matter. Our faith teaches us some pretty incredible things. That God the Son became one of us. That God the Son dies for us. That God the Son rose from the dead and is alive. But there is one more thing that is just as incredible. Our God doesn't just live "out there" somewhere. He lives in you and He lives in me. And that makes all the difference in the world. We should all make sure that our faith isn't just words, or aren't just beliefs that rattle around in our heads. Rather let's make sure that our faith is a living faith one that shapes the choices we make, one that allows the God in each of us to be poured into the world through every loving thing we do.

Happy Easter,
 Deacon John

Promote a Culture of Life

Two important pieces of legislation are before the Senate and House to protect the unborn.

1. The Pain Capable Unborn Child Protection Act

This would prevent abortions taking place once a baby reaches 20 weeks. At 20 weeks it is thought a baby begins to feel pain!

2. Born Alive - Infant Protection Act

This will ensure that a baby born alive during a failed abortion receives the same medical care as any other baby would and won't be left to die or killed.

Please write, call or text your representative and urge them to support the sanctity of life!!

DO YOU KNOW YOUR TRIBUNAL?

The Tribunal is available to help people who have experienced divorce and who may wish to remarry in the Catholic Church.

When a divorce occurs, the Catholic Church always seeks to balance two realities. On one hand the durable bond of marriage. This is God's law. On the other hand, the Church is concerned about the spiritual welfare of the people involved. Even though a Catholic wedding was celebrated, perhaps there was some deficiency in the consent of the parties involved regarding intentions, understanding or ability? The annulment procedure addresses these circumstances.

If you are divorced and want to marry in the Church or remarried outside the Catholic Church, please telephone the Tribunal Office at 222 North 17th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19103 (215) 587-3750

Burial & Cremation

Pope Francis, through the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, has issued instructions regarding the burial of the deceased especially those who choose cremation. This instruction should help to maintain and recognize the human body as a living temple of God's presence. Proper respect for the deceased and their remains must always be upheld.

Copies on the guidelines are available at the rectory

Saturday, May 1st the Feast of St. Joseph the Worker

O Glorious St. Joseph, model of all those who are devoted to labor.

Obtain for me the grace to work conscientiously, putting the call of duty above my natural inclinations, to work with gratitude and joy, in a spirit of penance for the remission of my sins, considering it an honor to employ and develop by means of labor the gifts received from God, to work with order, peace, moderation and patience, without ever shrinking from weariness and difficulties, to work above all with purity of intention and detachment from self, having always death before my eyes and the account that I must render of time lost, of talents wasted, of good omitted, of vain complacency in success, so fatal to the work of God.

All for Jesus, all through Mary, all after thine example, O Patriarch, St. Joseph.

Such shall be my watch-word in life and in death.

St. Joseph, pray for us!

YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH

Glorious St. Joseph, you have the power to render possible things which are impossible, come to our aid in our present trouble and distress. Take this important and difficult affair under your particular protection that it may end happily.

Oh, dear St. Joseph, all our confidence is in you. Let it not be said that we have invoked you in vain, and since you are so powerful with Jesus and Mary, show that your goodness equals your power. Amen
